ABOUT DORA BRILLIANT

Dora Brilliant is named after a depressive Russian spy/revolutionary who sometimes masqueraded as nightclub singer. The songs are usually over in around three minutes or less and are what you get when write music first without much consideration as to how you will manage to fit words on it. It probably is broke but we don't want to fix it.

We used to rehearse more, but then someone said you can be too rehearsed so we really cut down. It saves you ££££ too.

Highs

We nearly played a gig at Buckingham University Student Union supporting Reverend and the Makers, but their soundcheck time used up our soundcheck time and also some of the time we were actually meant to be playing for so we were ditched. Still got paid though. And free drinks.

Lows

Shared a stage with Chas from Chas and Dave. No Dave though.

Dora Brilliant are S Speaks, J Agar and G Lear.
